WorldCat Discovery

We hope everyone is enjoying our new catalog as much as we are. Being able to search for books and journal articles in one place should make your research much easier. Please remember to contact the Online Librarian if you need any assistance with library services.

Last semester some of our library student workers created a video tour of the library that can be accessed by the link below. This gives an overview of all the services the library provides with a tour of the library building and spaces that are provided.
