

TOCCOA FALLS

COLLEGE

Business Administration Department

Position: Sport Management Faculty (Full-Time)

Are you passionate about developing and mentoring Christian, sport management students both personally and professionally for service in today's marketplace? Do you have a personal commitment to integrate biblical truth and academic excellence in course content and delivery? Are you equipped to instruct others in the knowledge, skills, and practices desirable in the business and coaching domains of sport management?

If so, the Toccoa Falls College Business Administration Department invites your application for a full-time faculty position in the field of Sport Management starting August 1, 2021. Rank and salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Responsibilities: Primary responsibilities include teaching traditional undergraduate courses, student advising, and service to the college and department including faculty committees. Candidates should be able to teach courses in the various business administration and physical education domains of sport management.

Qualifications: A master's degree in Sport Management or similar area is a minimum requirement. Previous teaching experience at the undergraduate and/or graduate level is highly desirable. The ideal candidate will hold an earned doctorate from a regionally accredited university in Sport Management or similar area; possess professional sport management experience; and be academically and/or professionally qualified by current SACSCOC standards to teach Sport Management, Physical Education, and introductory Business or Management courses. Qualified candidates will evidence strong teaching skills, the ability to integrate faith and learning, a vibrant evangelical Christian faith, and a sincere commitment to the mission of Toccoa Falls College.
