

Position Title: Adjunct Teaching Position in Outdoor Leadership and Education
Reports to: Ministry and Leadership Department Chair
Appointment: Part-time, Temporary

POSITION SUMMARY:

The Ministry and Leadership Department at Toccoa Falls College invites applicants for an adjunct teaching position in the field of Outdoor Leadership and Education for the Spring of 2023. Primary teaching responsibilities would include courses covering topics such as camp programming, risk management, emergency response, and backcountry travel.

TASKS:

Faculty are required to prepare outstanding college/university-level learning experiences in the assigned Outdoor Leadership and Education courses each semester. Faculty must plan coursework and provide feedback to students about their performance on class assignments in a respectful and timely manner to help them improve their understanding, retention, and application of course content.

SKILLS AND ATTRIBUTES:

Experience and certifications in Camp programming, wilderness safety, rock climbing, kayaking, and adventure-based education are required for certain courses. Qualified candidates will evidence strong teaching skills, the ability to integrate faith and learning, a vibrant evangelical Christian faith, and a sincere commitment to the mission of Toccoa Falls College.

EXPERIENCE & EDUCATION: A master's degree in Outdoor Leadership, Camp Programming, or a directly related field is a minimum requirement; an earned doctorate is strongly preferred. Prior college teaching experience is highly desirable.

PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS:

Must be physically fit enough to demonstrate skills and supervise students in the performance of necessary tasks associated with a rigorous outdoor leadership program. Must be able to regularly participate in exercises and outdoor expeditions with college students.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

The TFC application as well as the list of other required application materials can be found at <http://www.tfc.edu/employment/>. Required application materials should be sent to: Mary Kaye Ritchey, Director of Human Resources, at mritchey@tfc.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately, and the position will remain open until filled. All application materials must be submitted for a candidate to be considered.
